R7 Walking Trail in Rosport – a View of the Sûre

The walk takes you through an enchanted forest with spectacular rocks. And who knows? If you keep a lookout, maybe you will spot the gap in the rocks known as the Kimmhäschen. An old legend has it that a woman in white lives here, who appears in various guises – sometimes as a giant, sometimes as a woman at a spinning-wheel, and sometimes as a herb witch. From the pavilion at the top of the walk, you have a lovely view of the Sûre Valley.

Rallye: "Travelling with the Kimmfrächen..."

The R7 walking trail takes you along the Sûre to the Hêlt in Rosport. It's a rocky cliff around which the Saver makes a large bend. At the top of this hill, you will find the Immleeën. In the rocks of the Immleeën there is a cave known as the Kimmhäischen. Legend has it that this cave is where the Kimmfrächen lives. She is dressed in white, with long, wavy hair, and she appears in various guises. She often walks through the forest on the Hêlt.

Keep an eye open for the Kimmfrächen if you are walking this route – you might spot her gathering her herbs.

Your Challenge

The Kimmfrächen is desperate. She wants to celebrate the longest night of the year with her friend and send him an invitation, but she has forgotten his name. Only you can help her! There are various clues hidden on the route. Try to find the places on the photos and solve the puzzle about it. To discover the first name and surname of her friend, you need to put in the letter in front of the right answers below.

1. Stone Steps
